Communication Consent Form

During the school year, we will contact you where appropriate for all matters related to “lawful business” such as absence, exclusions, school closures, assessment results etc. in line with our privacy notices which can be found on our school website.

You are however required to consent or decline to communications in respect to the below.

Your decision on whether to give consent will remain valid throughout your child’s time at the school, unless you notify the school to the contrary in writing. If you change your mind at any time, you can let us know by emailing the school at: schooloffice@southcamberley.surrey.sch.uk

Please tick to indicate your consent to the communications below or leave blank to decline.

Please return to the school office when completed.
